- 1- Yes, in addition to my focused efforts I visited BBC website to enhance my pronunciation skills, I have engaged in various playful activities to practice English. These activities have not only made the learning process enjoyable but have also contributed significantly to my overall language proficiency.
- 2- I wanted to share with you about the current focus of my efforts in our English class. I am actively working on a project titled "SQL SERVER CLUSTER IN WINDOWS SERVER 2019 CLUSTER." To enhance my preparation for this project, I've been dedicating time to watching a few instructional videos in English. I believe that engaging with these videos not only aids in comprehending the technical aspects of the project but also serves as a valuable opportunity to improve my listening skills in English.

The Article that I wrote about my project:

Good morning everyone!

I am thrilled to be here today to share with you a project that I have been passionately working on - a website designed to revolutionize the way we learn and engage with the French language. As a website programmer and developer, I've dedicated five hours of my week to create an online platform for an educational association in Paris. This association is committed to helping foreigners to learn the French language, and my website serves as a digital gateway to enhance their learning experience.

The primary objective of this website is to provide a seamless and interactive learning environment for students striving to grasp the intricacies of the French language. Through this platform, students gain access to course content at their convenience and can actively participate in discussions, share their thoughts, and connect with the teacher in real-time via a user-friendly chat interface.

Over the course of my presentation, I'll delve into the key features of the website, how it facilitates learning, and the positive impact it can have on the educational journey of language learners. I believe that technology has the power to transcend traditional boundaries in education, making learning more accessible, engaging, and effective.

I look forward to walking you through the various aspects of this project, showcasing its potential to transform the way we approach language education. Let's embark on this journey together and explore the exciting possibilities that arise when innovation meets education.

Thank you for your attention, and without further ado, let's dive into the world of language learning through the lens of technology!
